

BRANCH MEETING PROGRAM
October 20, 2020

Speaker: Stephen Davis (LCRA)

Title: Zebra Mussels

Bio: Stephen Davis is an aquatic biologist for the LCRA. He received a BS in Environmental Science from TCU, and an MS from Texas A&M University where he conducted research in the Wildlife and Fisheries Department. Since graduation, Stephen has worked for several natural resource management organizations including the City of Austin Watershed Protection Department, The Barton Springs Edwards Aquifer Conservation District, Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, and now the LCRA. Stephen's work has encompassed a range of projects involving water quality, riparian restoration, aquatic invasive species, and native species conservation. He currently leads the LCRA's zebra mussel monitoring program. Whether it's during the workday or on the weekend you can often find Stephen near the water.
