

BRANCH MEETING PROGRAM
November 16, 2021

Waterloo Greenway

John Rigdon, Director of Planning and Design

John Rigdon is at the helm of Waterloo Greenway capital projects, skillfully weaving together the efforts of the project managers, the City of Austin, and the design team. With roots in sustainable city planning and community engagement, he has provided forward-looking solutions to a vast array of project management, design, and programming challenges across his career. John earned an M.S. in community and regional planning from The University of Texas at Austin.

Meeting Sponsored by WGI

WGI is a multi-discipline professional services firm leading our profession in technology-based design solutions for the construction of public infrastructure and real estate development. At WGI, we like to say that we're providing Tomorrow's Infrastructure Solutions Today. The built environment and the process by which we envision, design, and build infrastructure, is changing faster than ever. With nearly 600 professionals spread across 18 offices in some of the most desirable locations in the country, we are at the leading edge in this sea of change.
